

What's included?

- ✓ Travel Destinations by Design assigns (1) Group Travel Specialist to oversee every detail. Our Group Travel Specialists are experts in the travel business and are fully licensed in Travel. With a customizable dance school trip, you only want an expert to handle every detail. From booking all travel arrangements, handling individual family requests, deposit and payment schedules, destination event management, overseeing performance site set up, arranging master classes, notifying the chefs about food allergies, food preferences, i.e. vegan, vegetarian, lactose intolerant and much more, our Travel consultants do it all!
- ✓ Let us know what city you would like to fly out of. We will take care of booking your group International Air Including domestic connectors where necessary.
- ✓ Upon arrival and depending on destinations and your customizable preferences; your group will be met by your personal destination Tour Leader and or a professional Meet & Greet inside the terminal building. You will be instructed where to meet in order to board your hotel transfer.
- ✓ (1) night accommodations pre-cruise. Accommodations based on single, double, triple accommodations. Quad and suite accommodations will be offered when available.
- ✓ Next day group transfer arrangements to cruise port. Time to settle into your staterooms before setting sail.
- ✓ While on board you will enjoy all that is offered to cruise guests. Travel Destinations by Design can arrange for your shore excursions based on individual request or as a group. Should you want a private event while sailing just let us know. Dance classes can be arranged, please discuss in detail with your travel specialist.
- ✓ Where permitted Travel Destinations by Design will host a group orientation with refreshments where you will meet your destination staff.
- ✓ Accommodations are based on single, double and triple accommodations. Where permitted quad accommodations and upgrades to suites.
- ✓ Your dancers will enjoy a performance on board performance. Please contact your Travel Advisor for more information. Combine Dance at Sea with Dance Disney or another resort offering to maximize your Destinations by Design dance family travel tour! Travel Destinations by Design offers fully customizable Dance School Group Travel. We look forward to working with you as we look after every detail.

*Day to Day tour and what's included may vary from tour to tour

What's included continued....

- ✓ Group Travel Insurance. We strongly recommend travel insurance. Please speak with your group travel specialist for more information about travel insurance packages available for you. Trip cancellation, interruption and out of Province medical insurance are a must. Never leave home without it!
- ✓ Group Travel Insurance. We strongly recommend travel insurance. Please speak with your group travel specialist for more information about travel insurance packages available for you. Trip cancellation, interruption and out of Province medical insurance are a must. Never leave home without it.
- ✓ We offer dance school group travel to both USA and CANADIAN groups therefore you can pay in currency that best suites your group.
- ✓ Your dance school group specialist will provide your dance school and their dance families the most dedicated customer service available. Our specialists are fully licensed in travel and experts in dance. All former dance school owners themselves. Combined they cover over 50 years of dance school business. Specialists are familiar with your business and understand the demands as adjudicators, examiners, choreographers, and continue to teach master classes.

"what's included" description above vary from dance school travel program, travel dates, number of participants and destinations.

Length and number of performances are subject to change. Performance dates are subject to change before departure and at destination.